Entry Fee

The entry Fee is CHF 100.- - respevtively CHF 90.- for Riders <18 for participating the championship. This includes a automatically a one year subcriptions for the Swiss Surfing Assoziation. For all riders which are already active members of the Swiss Surfing assoziation the entry fee is CHF 50.- respectively CHF 40.- .

By registering, you commit to participating in the contest. Fake registrations (e.g. for getting more surfing time without competing at the contest) result in you getting blocked for the participation of the following events.

Equipment

It is recommended to bring your own equipment for the competition. Nevertheless the standard softboards and wetsuits of „The wave factory“ could be used.

Trainings

There are three training slots scheduled. Between the heats, only riders from the next heat are allowed to surf. The detailed training procedure/schedule for each rider will be communicated through our social media channels.

Categories

There are three different categories for the first Swiss Wavepool Championship. Men and women category for all riders who are 18 or older and a junior category for all riders younger than 18.

Beside the Swiss Wavepool Championship there will be an expression category for all riders without a Swiss passport.

Riders are only allowed to compete in one of those categories.

Competiton format

The competition format is a double elimination for each category. Every Rider has at least two heats to compete.

Setting: Best 8 Riders men (Landlocked Ranking) and best 4 Riders women (Landlocked Ranking) are spread over the Round 1 Heats.

Heat time: Each heat lasts 6-10 minutes for the 3-6 riders. Number of Participants

Men: 24 Riders; Women: 12 Riders; Junior: 8 Riders; Expression: 8 Riders (max Riders per division)

A minimum of four riders is required for each category.

Judging

Four Judges including one Head Judge are responsible for the competition judging. Each ridden wave will be judged however only the two best waves will be counted.

Judging criteria:

Bad Waves: 0.1 - 1.9 / Poor Waves: 2.0 - 3.9 / Average Waves: 4.0 - 5.9 / Good Waves: 6.0 - 7.9 / Excelent: 8.0 – 10

	English	Français	Deutsch
1	Commitment and degree of difficulty Performing manoeuvres with a high degree of difficulty and full commitment, taking risk instead of surfing safe will be rewarded.	disponibilité, degré de difficulté	Einsatzbereitschaft und Schwierigkeitsgrad
2	Innovative and progressive manoeuvres Progressive surfing as well as innovative 'new school' performance is what judges are looking for when separating scores and riders.	innovant et progressive manœuvre	innovative und progressive Manöver
3	Combination of major manoeuvres Surfers must execute radical controlled manoeuvres, focus will be on good surfing style rather than tricks. A combination of turns and tricks will be rewarded highest.	combinaison de majeure manœuvre	Kombination, Verbindung von wichtigen Manövern
4	Variety of manoeuvres A full repertoire with a variety of manoeuvres shows a complete skill package, which is essential for obtaining excellent scores.	diversité des manœuvres	Vielfalt der Manöver
5	Speed, power and flow Maintaining speed surfing rail to rail, utilizing the full potential of the wave.	vitesse, force, fluide	Geschwindigkeit, Kraft, Fahrfluss
6	Drop in Start the run with a drop in gives extra points if it crosses over in a fluently surf. If not it will count just as well as a seated start.	se jeter à l'eau	hineinspringen
	Incomplete manoeuvres will not be rewarded.	On ne compte pas l'incomplète manœuvre.	Nicht gelungene Manöver zählen nicht

The judging of the Swiss Wavepool Championship is carried out with variations as follows: Judges will utilize a 60-40% ratio being that surfers will only ever get a maximum of 60% (6.0 points) of the scale for surfing, up to an additional 40% (4.0 points) for tricks when the two aspects are combined.
